

THE FRAGILITY OF STATES

ISSUES IN GLOBAL STUDIES (ARSC300)

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

THURSDAYS
12:30 –1:20 PM
Kirkbride 005

Fall 2017 LECTURE SERIES

This course examines why failed and failing states—from Somalia to Syria and beyond—are destabilizing and unravelling. Why, even in advanced and developed states, is governance failing?

This lecture series is offered by the Center for Global and Area Studies. It may be taken as a one-credit Pass/Fail course: ARSC300 Issues in Global Studies. The course is open to all students and is a core course for the minor in Global Studies. Please direct your inquiries to Prof. Muqtedar Khan (mkhan@udel.edu)

SEP.
7

MUQTEDAR KHAN | Political Science & International Relations; Islamic Studies
The Concepts of Failed States and Good Governance

SEP.
14

ALAN FOX | Philosophy; Asian Studies; Islamic Studies; Jewish Studies
Failed Societies Precede Failed States

SEP.
21

CLAIRE RASMUSSEN | Political Science & International Relations; Women & Gender Studies
Right Wing Populism & Rise of Democratic Authoritarianism

SEP.
28

STUART KAUFMAN | Political Science & International Relations; European Studies; Jewish Studies
Cascading Failures: Sudan and South Sudan

OCT.
5

KAMRAN BOKHARI | Center for Cyber & Homeland Security, George Washington University
The Failed State of Afghanistan

OCT.
12

NEEPA M. ACHARYA | Political Science & International Relations
Has the Rise of Nationalism Made Indian Democracy More Fragile?

OCT.
19

WILLIAM MEYER | Political Science & International Relations
The Impact of Dictators on Latin America

OCT.
26

TAHIR SHAD | Political Science & International Studies, Washington College
Is Pakistan a Failed State?

NOV.
2

WILLIAM MEYER | Political Science & International Relations
Prosecuting Dictators in Latin America

NOV.
9

DAVID REDLAWSK | Political Science & International Relations
The Impact of Fake News on Governance

NOV.
16

DANIEL KINDERMAN | Political Science & International Relations; European Studies
Brexit: Are Suprastates Failing Too?

NOV.
30

MUQTEDAR KHAN | Political Science & International Relations; Islamic Studies
What Can We Do to Promote Good Governance?

This one-credit course satisfies a core requirement for the Global Studies minor.

Visit our website for more information: www.cgas.udel.edu

The Center for Global and Area Studies, the College of Arts and Sciences' hub for world scholarship and engagement, supports academic programs in African, Asian, European, Islamic, Jewish, Latin American & Iberian, and Global Studies. CGAS also organizes lectures and events in global and area studies, develops related majors and minors, and awards

CGAS
CENTER FOR GLOBAL AND AREA STUDIES
ENGAGING THE WORLD

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE